

Massachusetts Association
of Colleges for Teacher Education

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Proposals are currently being sought for one-hour presentations at the MACTE/COMTEC/MAECTE Fall 2020 Virtual Conference
“Address Disruption Now: Protest, Policies, Practices and Pandemic in Education”

Friday & Saturday - November 20 & 21

Friday Topics

- Increasing diverse candidate teacher pipeline
- Curricula implementation across the grade levels and license areas to improve programming
- Creative practices to prepare preservice teachers for the classroom
- Supporting teacher candidates' retention in the field
- Innovative learning strategies to support future careers in education

Saturday Topics

- Teaching Black Lives Matter: resources and activities
- Amplifying Youth Voices
- Understand culture and its implication for teaching
- Deeper dive on bias and exposing own prejudices
- Impact of the opportunity or achievement gap on teacher candidates
- Strategies teachers use to equalize remote learning

Priority Deadline for submission: October 15, 2020

Final Deadline for submission: November 6, 2020

Proposal Requirements:

- Contact information & institutional affiliation (Include all presenters)
- Brief presenter bio (~50 words)
- Title of one-hour session and abstract of your presentation (250 - 300 words)
- Summary of your presentation for conference program (50 words)

Proposals should be submitted electronically to Patricia Fontaine:
Patricia.Fontaine@uml.edu

Proposals submitted for the spring 2020 conference are still being considered and there is no need to submit again.

If your proposal is accepted, you will be required to provide a copy of your presentation to MACTE prior to your session. Presenters are required to pay for conference registration if accepted.